Sermon: "The Freedom of Our Chains"

Text: Philippians 1:12-18

Introduction: Attitude is everything. Attitude is the manner, disposition, feeling, position, etc. with regard to person or thing, a tendency or orientation especially of the mind. An ungodly, un-gospel, attitude affects many believers. Paul's life attitude was "I don't mind chains, as long as the gospel is advanced" (v. 12-14). Note four ways Paul's attitude toward his "chains" advanced the gospel:

I. His _____ was established (v. 13 "...for Christ")

II. It gave him the _____ to be a _____ for Christ
(v. 13b "...it has become known..." - "clear" in the NIV)

III. The gospel went to _____ it _____ would not have gone
(v. 13c "...the whole imperial guard")

IV. Christians were _____ to _____ for Christ (v. 14)
